The list of our members deceased during the past year includes the names of many who were prominent in the various important affairs of our City and Country, and whose presence in the Club contributed materially to its enjoyable associations. Special reference should be made to the death of an Honorary member, Major-General Oliver Otis Howard, of distinguished military ability and of most lovable character. General Howard was a graduate of West Point and the only remaining general who was in command of an army during the Civil War.

Upon the recommendation of your Committee, William H. Taft, President of the United States, was elected an Honorary member of the club, at its regular meeting held March 11, 1909.

Your Committee acknowledges the gift from our fellow-member, Mr. Edward Holbrook, of a beautiful tablet in bronze, bearing in bas-relief a portrait of President Lincoln and a copy of his famous oration delivered upon the occasion of the dedication of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg.

The members of The Union League Club tendered a reception of Welcome Home to Senator-elect Elihu Root, at the Club-house, Wednesday evening, March 10, 1909. It was a Club affair. Senator Root was introduced to the members by Mr. George R. Sheldon, President, and made a short address of appreciation. More than five hundred members were in attendance, among them being five ex-Presidents of the Club, viz., Messrs. Choate, Root, Porter, Bliss, and Depew.

To our fellow-members, Hon. Clark Williams and Mr. Bayard Dominick, Jr., we are indebted for two very interesting and instructive entertainments. The former delivered an address on April 8, 1909, subject—"The Banking Department of the State of New York." The latter presented an illustrated lecture, subject—"Hunting in Africa," on December 13, 1909. By invitation, the Hon. Frederick M. Davenport, of the New York Senate, delivered a very pleasing address, subject—"The Personality of William McKinley," on December 9, 1909.

An excellent entertainment was given and a collation served on New Year's eve, followed by the usual collation on New Year's day, both of which were well attended.

On the evening of Wednesday, January 27, 1909, an illustrated lecture was delivered by Mr. Burr McIntosh, subject—"Plain Talk: The United States of To-day"; a Smoker Concert was given on February 25, 1909; March 23, 1909, there was an illustrated lecture on "Hunting and Fishing," by Mr. Richard H. Follett; a Smoker Concert on April 19, 1909; on May 8, 1909, a lecture was delivered by Mr. R. Cornelius Raby, entitled "The Texan and His State"; mention of a very interesting lecture by Mr. W. C. Davis is also to be included in this record of entertainments for the year 1909.

HUDSON-FULTON CELEBRATION

The courtesies of the Club were extended to the visiting Foreign and American Naval Officers and the Official Guests of the Hudson-Fulton Commission during their stay in the city of New York. Our guests were invited to special luncheons on Tuesday, September 28th, Thursday, September 30th, and Saturday, October 2d, and on the evening of October 2d a supper was served to the guests and members of the Club.

Reservation was made on the steamers Hendrick Hudson and Robert Fulton for the accommodation of members and their guests to view the day and night water parades. The Club House was suitably decorated inside and the exterior electrical illumination and decorations were generally and favourably commented upon by the members.

A considerable amount of money has been expended by your Committee during the past year for improvements and renewals. It was found that an unused space in the building could be devoted to the construction of new bed-rooms. Plans were submitted and the construction of the rooms successfully carried out, adding thereby four new rooms with baths. The expense attached thereto will be more than met by the income from these rooms within one year, and for the first time, the total income from rooms will pay the ground rent of the Club. In addition to this, it was found advisable to remove the barber shop from the basement to the main floor, where a new one was constructed and furnished; to build a new room for valet; to put down new parquet and cork flooring; to build new glass partitions separating the dormitory from the main section on the third and fourth floors; to renovate and paint dining-room, Nos. 1 and 2 cafés, etc,; to alter the windows in No. 2 café for improving ventilation; to renew china service of private dining-rooms, to make new importation of linen with Club monogram; to get new carpet for the reading-room; new washing machine for the laundry; new fire apparatus; new billiard balls; new time clock; new pump, etc., etc.

The accounts of the Club have been carefully audited and the inventories taken by The American Audit Company. Their report shows in part:—That the income from Restaurant sales in 1909 was $68,-211.90, and the cost of sales (including board of employees) amounted to $52,955.10, as against an income in the year 1908 of $59,861.88, with cost of sales, etc., $56,908.61. For the first time in the history of the Club, we believe, the result of the operations in the Restaurant Department for the year shows a gain—amount, $93.33—and the results in the other departments have been correspondingly satisfactory.

Although the expenditures for betterments, renewals, and entertainments have been large, the Committee is pleased to report that after all outstanding bills have been paid there has been turned over to the Finance Committee $31,012.94, and there is an increase in stock of supplies on hand amounting to $1,794.03. The net gain in the operations for the year is $30,580.92. The Finance Committee's report shows a balance in its hands January 1st, 1910, of $209,705.86.

The Club is indebted to the several Standing Committees for efficient and capable work during the year.

Your Chairman desires to express his high appreciation of the hearty co-operation of his fellow-members on the Executive as well as the House Committee in the management of the affairs of the Club during the past year.

For a detailed statement of the expenditures and receipts reference may be made to the Treasurer's report.

Samuel W. Fairchild,
Chairman Executive Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY AND PUBLICATIONS OF THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB

NEW YORK, January 13, 1910.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Library and Publications herewith presents its report for the year 1909.

The Committee has continued the policy of discarding obsolete volumes and replacing old and worn out editions, as opportunity has offered. The suggestions and recommendations of members of the Club, regarding the purchase of books, have received careful consideration and in most cases such books have been added to the Library.

Members desiring to read books not in the Library should enter the request in the book provided for that purpose or leave the titles with the Librarian as the subscriptions in the Society Library are intended to supply such books, that in the judgment of the Committee are not likely to be of permanent value.

A number of discarded volumes and duplicate sets of books have been sent to the Army Posts in Alaska, where they have been very highly appreciated.

The Catalogue shows a total of 13,450 books in the Library. During the past year 86 books have been presented and 333 have been purchased, 112 replacing inferior editions.

The appropriation of $4,000 has been expended as follows:

FIXED CHARGES:
Newspapers	$1,383 08
Periodicals	754 71
Annuals	269 43
Subscriptions, N. Y. Society Library	50 00
		$2,457 22
MAINTENANCE:
Bindings	376 27
Renovating bindings	124 90
Books replaced	353 84
Miscellaneous	190 26
		$1,045 27
ADDITIONS:
New Books		485 48
Balance		12 03
		$4,000 00

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ART

To the President and Members of The Union League Club.

Gentlemen:

The Committee on Art begs leave to submit the following report for the year 1909.

This Committee was elected at the Annual Meeting of the Club on the Fourteenth of January, 1909. Colonel Henry B. Wilson presided as Chairman with rare efficiency until his lamented demise on March 7th last.

The January Exhibition of 1909, under the auspices of the outgoing Committee on Art of 1908, was composed of paintings from the collection of the late Collis P. Huntington. It is a fact that in this collection some of the best examples of the work of celebrated painters were displayed.

The regular March Exhibition was omitted because of the work and cost devoted to the one in January.

Much discussion has been given to the condition of the paintings belonging to the Club, and after duly inspecting these, your Committee submitted a proposal to the Executive Committee, which was in turn considered favorably, and your Committee was authorised to proceed with the work, involving the proper restoration of the canvases and frames and completing the list and numbering the pictures, which later will be catalogued in such a form as to be of convenience and available to all the members of the Club.

On the Second of October, for the Hudson-Fulton Reception, a small collection of paintings was assembled in the galleries.

The usual November Exhibition was held from the Eleventh to the Fourteenth, and was composed of a selection of paintings from the collection of one of our members—Mr. M. C. D. Borden.

The cases of porcelains have been relined and the collection replaced in perfect order.

The portrait of the late Hon. William M. Evarts, who was President of this Club from 1882 to 1885, and painted by Eastman Johnson several years ago, has been on exhibition here with a view to its becoming the property of the Club, and after due inspection by your Committee, which made recommendation on December 8th that this be purchased, it now has authority from the Executive Committee, after duly conferring with Mrs. Eastman Johnson, to buy the painting, at the agreed price of $1000.00.

The exhibition now in our galleries is composed of portraits of American actresses and operatic singers in character parts, and painted principally by American artists.

Your Committee most earnestly recommends that in the future every facility should be accorded it by the Club to perform its regular office work, particularly the necessary correspondence relative to exhibitions etc., as there will be maintained a confidential means, by which the business should be carried on.

Your Committee's experience this last year has prompted the suggestion that a certain amount of money be voted for the use of your Committee, to carry on its work and exhibitions, as has always been provided for other committees.

As far as is in its power to consult the books and memoranda the amount of money expended during this fiscal year is as follows:

For office work and exhibitions.....	$1025.00
Cleaning and restoring canvases and frames of paintings belonging to the Club.....	1007.45
Purchase of portrait of the Hon. William M. Evarts.....	1000.00
	$3032.95

PAULDING FARNHAM,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITICAL REFORM

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Political Reform submits the following report for the year 1909:

1. The amendment of the constitution of this state proposed on behalf of the Club providing for biennial sessions of the legislature was not presented in 1909 for the reason that the conditions prevailing at that time in regard to legislation did not justify the expectation that the proposed reform would receive adequate consideration. It was deemed best to defer the effort to secure its approval until the present session. It will be advocated by the Committee during this session in the full belief that it represents a most desirable reform. It is the only practical remedy for the evil of excessive legislation which now exists.

2. The interest exhibited in the proposed reform in regard to primary elections, will no doubt be renewed at the present session of the legislature by the presentation of fresh plans. The Committee in view of the importance of the subject devoted several long special sessions to the investigation in that regard. It, however, made no report, because finally it became obvious that no legislative action could be expected at that session. The Committee is, however, prepared to take that subject up, and will report to the Club if any action by it should seem to be desirable.

3. At the request of the President of the Club, the Committee placed itself in communication with committees of other bodies, having in view election reforms with special reference to changes in the ballot itself. The extraordinary length of the ballot provided for use at the last election presented the evils incident to it in such a conspicuous manner that decided efforts will be made to secure the adoption of a shorter ballot, a movement which undoubtedly, if it became effective and operative, will require very considerable legislative action.

4. For several years, as authorized by the Club, attempts have been made to secure a better knowledge of proposed constitutional amendments on the part of the electors; so to speak a more thorough advertisement of them, and the committee will do its utmost to promote necessary legislation to this end.

5. The matter of amendments to the Emigration Law referred to the Committee at the last meeting of the Club has not been acted upon. It was not deemed desirable to take it up for formal consideration until the names of the Committee for the ensuing year became known, as there might be decided changes.

In addition to this it was not believed that a topic of so great importance could receive suitable consideration and debate at the annual meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

CEPHAS BRAINERD,
Chairman.

E. C. VANGLAHN,
Secretary.

January 10, 1910.
